

Lorena Duran

Lorena started modelling at the age of 17 when she signed with her mother agency in Vienna. Lorena was raised a military brat in the US Army with her father American and Mother German, always moving around her whole childhood and finally found home in Germany. Lorena hit the ground running in the modelling world as new agencies offered contracts all throughout the world. Being represented world-wide has opened a range of door for Lorena as she's had the opportunity to travel, meeting new people which in her own words is truly a blessing on her life. The people she has met along the way have become her second family as she explores all corners of the world with them, bringing her immense joy and life experiences.

Lorena hobbies steams from her love for travelling as she makes time to discover historic cities and learn new cultures. Her artistic background allows her to see the beauty in everything the world shows her, inspiring her everyday.
