

Delfina Morbelli

The gorgeous Delfina was born in Buenos Aires Argentina, but then raised in Ibiza and Barcelona. Delfina is both an architect and full time model. While booking international covers for Vogue, Harpers Bazaar and Elle, she was simultaneously earning a masters from one of South America's most prestigious design schools. From New York City to London, Spain, Milan and Paris, Delfina has quickly gained International recognition appearing in campaigns for Revlon, Anthropologie, Desigual and landing on the streets of New York City with Macys. When Delfina is not traveling or working, she enjoys spending time in nature, acting and painting.

This Argentine beauty is a true creative. Her social media presence reflects not only her career but also her personal life; she loves sharing her trips and experiences abroad with her followers.
