Yorkshire born and bred Danny Lomas first got the public's attention through the fashion YouTube hit series PAQ, which he created with three of his friends and thanks to his personal style and quick wit, he instantly built a loyal and highly engaged global audience. Whilst the PAQ days are over, his uniquely modern British style has turned him into somewhat of a style icon amongst his core Gen-Z following yet also transcends to a much wider audience. His wardrobe mixes tailoring, vintage sportswear, technical outerwear and mod accessories for a very honest approach to style.

Danny is a natural presenter and his humour paired with serious fashion knowledge has allowed him to interview global superstars like Hailey Bieber, Billie Eilish and Lewis Hamilton for brands worldwide. In 2022 he launched his Podcast Dansplaining, a platform he utilises to talk to friends and fashion heavyweights alike all things fashion and their careers within the industry. The podcast quickly reached the top of the UK fashion podcast charts and has continued to hold the pole position since.

Danny has an endless portfolio of top tier brands with which he has worked with as a presenter, model and content creator - his client list includes Prada, Gucci, Tommy Hilfiger & Belstaff to name just a few.
