

Aketch Joy Winnie

Born and raised in Uganda, Aketch has always had a love for modeling but did not realise until later on in life. Scouted in 2018 when she least expected it, Aketch was on a break from her full time teaching career and decided to attend a casting for a Kampala fashion show, the Capital City Of Uganda, and like that Aketch was signed on the spot. Since then Aketch has worked with a growing number of renowned clients such as; Vogue Mexico, Net-A-Porter, Glass Magazine, and Fendi. When Aketch gets the chance she will to go back to her home in Uganda, to take the time to teach her old students. Looking up to Aketch, she continues to share her advise and guidance she has to offer in all aspects as their teacher. Evident in the running of her own non-profit organisation, Little Hands of Grace, Aketch helps rescue, teach, guide and provide for children from disadvantaged families. Taking anytime she can away from her busy schedule she loves to create and be creative. Aketch uses her social media platforms to not only express and showcase her creative talents but also give an honest inside perspective into the industry with Reels, YouTube and TikTok.
