

Monyjok

At just 18 years old, Monyjok has taken the fashion industry by storm. Due to conflict in South Sudan, Monyjok became a refugee where he was displaced to Kenya. It was there where he was scouted to be a model and the rest is history. He is now represented by some of the biggest agencies around the World.

You'll find Monyjok on the catwalks of London, Milan and Paris or even on the front cover of some of the biggest magazines across the Globe!

His social media presence reflects his true passion for the industry - a place he has dreamt of being a part of all his life. He shares behind the scenes snippets of from shows, shoots and everything inbetween and is certainly one to watch!
